

UMR Project - Strathcona

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

This project consisted of the relocation and installation of new mains and services and moving any existing inside gas meters to the exterior of the buildings. Somerville was responsible for all aspects of the job from applying for and tracking locates and permits, customer contact and public relations, safety and signage, all excavation and landscaping/repairs to complete the work, installation and abandonment of all underground piping, all work downstream of the meter and associated inside piping both on residential and commercial buildings. This project has an estimated 101 services and 0.9km of main to be installed.

Client

Atco Gas

Job Number

09503

Work Type

Distribution Pipeline

Location

Alberta

Role

General Contractor

